Union Board Plans Program

Dramatics Club to Give Moliere Play

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself," by Moliere, will be presented by the Dramatics Club at two local high schools, one of which will be Graham high school, during the month of April. Tentative plans have been made for the play to be presented on KFEQ-TV, St. Joseph. No date has been set for this yet.

Featured in the cast are Sganarelle, Earl Gebhardt; Martine, Carolyn Denny; Robert, Walter Maris; Valere, Roger L. Wayman; Lucas, Barry Simpson; Jacqueline, Marge Canon; Lucinde, Nancy Dancer; Geronte, John Thompson; Leandre, Kirby Norman.

The play is directed by Mr. Ralph E. Fulsom, assisted by Elbert Blair. Work is purely voluntary, and the play is being presented through the interest of the club. This is the first time the Dramatics Club has ever taken on such a project. The primary interest is to benefit the College.

Student Senate Selects Members of Who's Who

Members of Who's Who for the year of 1954-1955, as determined by the Student Senate in compliance with the rules established for such awards, are as follows:

John Barrett, Franklin D. Bayless, Earl Bridgewater, Annie Lou Cowan, Maxine Goff, J. D. Hammond, Roberta Kordes, Louise Novinger, Jerry Struck, Bill Summa. The primary requirement for all nominees was the attaining of a 1.75 grade average.

Other considerations concerning the selections were based on the student's active participation in social and departmental leadership, student government activities, and overall participation in school activities, that is, departmental productions, journalistic activities, homecoming leadership, and various other positions requiring student leadership. A point system for evaluating extra-curricular activities was devised in 1953.

Finally, only seniors are eligible.

Humorist to Present Assembly on March 11

Henry Scott, concert humorist, will present an assembly for college students on Friday, March 11, at 10 a. m.

The program includes numbers on the piano and humorous remarks by Mr. Scott, a well-known theatrical figure who appeared on the campus several years ago and was well received by the students.

Union Board Develops Program For Individuals and Groups

To develop a Union program for individual and group activity is the objective of the Union Board, under the direction of Miss Lois Simons, director of student activities.

Members of the board were appointed by the president of the Student Senate, Frank Bayless, and chairman of the social committee, John Barrett.

This newly appointed board held its first dinner meeting in the Lakeview Room, February 17, for the purpose of activating their Union program and of discussing the suggestions and ideas brought by Ken Moore, student delegate, and Miss Simons from the recent Regional Conference of College Unions at Iowa State Memorial Union, Ames, Iowa.

At this conference Ken served on the student steering committee and served as moderator for the panel discussion on "Methods of Publicity for the Small Union." Miss Simons, as conference secretary, was a member of the steering and planning committee.

Representing the Senate and the social committee, the Union Board has as its purpose the development of a College Union program for small groups and individuals, supplementing activities sponsored by campus organizations and the social committee.

To launch the program Dr. Sterling Surrey, head of the business department, and Frank Russell will lead a student-faculty discussion, Thursday afternoon, March 4.

During this discussion from 3:30-5:00 in the Union Lounge, free coffee and cookies will be served.

Student-faculty coffee hours are planned to provide the opportunity for student-faculty relationships outside the class room, and subjects will be selected with the interests of all in mind.

The Union Board invites you, for coffee, cookies, and the gab-session tomorrow between 3:30 and 5:00.

The Union Board invites all students interested in committee memberships to apply on the form provided on page two in this issue of the Northwest Missourian.

Committees to be formed are the following:

Publicity committee: Members will provide publicity for any Union activity requesting it. Writers and poster makers especially are needed.

Forum committee: Members will plan discussion forums on topics of general interest and concern to students.

Music committee: Members will help to provide music programs for the Union.

Arts and crafts committee: Members will help to provide arts and crafts programs for the Union.

Robert Smith Will Present Assembly on Far East, Friday

Robert Aura Smith, an editorial writer for the New York Times, specializing in the Far East and national defense, will speak at the College assembly on Friday.

Mr. Smith recently returned from a comprehensive survey trip through the Far East where his object was to talk to the chiefs of state and other leaders in eleven countries to find out what Asians were thinking about their policies and ours.

Judging Team Enters Contest

Nine College students and Mr. F. B. Houghton, agriculture instructor, will leave next Wednesday for Oklahoma City to attend the Intercollegiate Livestock Judging contests which will be held on March 12. The students who will make the trip will include Glen Dukes, George Lockridge, John Harvey, Donald Shamberger, Harold Baker, Joe Frederick, Ted Reed, Gene Mitchell, and Maurice Nelson. Five of these boys will be selected for a team to represent the College in the contest.

The team and their coach plan to visit several well known livestock farms on their way down to Oklahoma City to gain more experience. Livestock farms to be visited include Mission Hills Farms, Joplin; Sunbeam Farms, Miami, Oklahoma; Par-Ker Ranch, Chelsea, Oklahoma; Angus Valley Farms, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Greenhill Farms, Mingo, Oklahoma; Shady Creed Farms, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Agriculture students from schools throughout the southwest part of the United States will compete in this contest. Last year's livestock judging team was second high in the same contest, being nosed out of first place by one point by Northeast Oklahoma A and M.

The group will travel in a station wagon and will leave Oklahoma City, Sunday morning, after the award breakfast.

Iranian Student Chooses Maryville

Mahmood Eghbal-Ahbadhi selected Northwest Missouri State College over other colleges and universities in the United States. Why?

This young gentleman from Iran chose Maryville to attend school because (1) small town people are friendly and more companionable than big city residents and (2) Mahmood is not an exchange student, but is financing his own education. It's cheaper here.

He is majoring in agriculture and his subjects are horticulture, general chemistry, English composition, freshman orientation and swimming.

Traveling from Iran to Maryville is an education in itself, as he traveled by bus, train, airplane, and boat. Important cities en route were Bagdad, Paris, and New York.

Mahmood speaks Persian, which is the national language of Iran, Turkish, English, and some Arabic. His religion is Mohammedan, and he enjoyed the assemblies religious emphasis week.

Maxine Goff Presents Senior Vocal Recital

Maxine DeShon Goff presented a vocal recital in Horace Mann auditorium on Monday evening. Maxine will be graduated in May from the College when she receives her bachelor of science degree in music. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max DeShon of Clarksdale.

The program included a variety of selections, with Italian, French, and English numbers.

George Green offered several piano selections during the intermission. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Green of Fairfax. Myrna Falk of Stanton, Iowa, accompanied Mrs. Goff.

He discussed problems with President Syngman Rhee in Korea, Premier Yoshida in Japan, Chiang-Kai-shek on Formosa, President Quirine and Defense Minister Nehru in India, Prime Minister Nazimuddin in Pakistan and Cabinet officials in other countries. He saw at first hand the American efforts to be of assistance and visited dozens of projects in the field, both military and civilian. His findings bring color and background to what he has to say.

Mr. Smith, a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University, began his journalism career with the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. From this beginning he set out for the Far East and began his studies of Asiatic politics in Japan and Manchuria. In 1930 he joined the staff of the New York Times and served as a correspondent in the Philippines. During this time he also served as news editor of the Manila Bulletin.

The day before Pearl Harbor, Mr. Smith joined the office of the Coordinator of Information with the assignment of setting up an American information service in the Far East. He left the United States on a China defense supplies ship, en route to Rangoon to drive into Chungking over the Burma Road.

Robert A. Smith

While the ship was still at sea, Rangoon was taken by the Japanese, and the ship was diverted to Karachi, India. So, it was in India that Robert A. Smith set up the office of coordinator.

Mr. Smith is the author of several books, among which are "Our Future in Asia," "Your Foreign Policy," and "Divided India."

Recently Mr. Smith pointed out that "As a matter of fact, I don't believe that there have been twenty-four hours in the last twenty years of my life in which I have not been doing something intimately connected with the problems of the Far East or American foreign policy."

Burroughs Company Demonstrates Machines

New accounting and office machines were demonstrated by the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, on the campus, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 22 and 23.

Included among the machines shown were descriptive accounting machines, multiplying accounting machines, and non-descriptive accounting machines.

This demonstration was primarily for business majors, but was open to any students who wanted to observe it.

Notes About Dedication . . .

Many prominent persons were present at the dedication ceremonies for the new National Guard Armory, February 20. Among them was Major Russell Noblet, of the legal department of the National Guard Bureau, Washington, D. C. Mr. Noblet, an alumnus of the College, was prosecuting attorney for Maryville in his earlier days in the legal profession.

Mr. Noblet was flown here with other military and civilian guests from Washington, D. C., that morning. That is, the plane bringing the guests from the Nation's capital came as far as Kansas City but was unable to get landing permission at the Maryville airport because of the ice-coated runways. Landing at Fairfax Airport, Kansas City, at 12:34, the Maryville-bound group arranged for a car to bring them here. They missed their dinner.

"I would have come many, many more miles to hear this particular gentleman give the dedication address," said Representative W. R. Hull, of the 6th congressional district, who came to hear the Honorable Harry S. Truman and who was one of the guests coming by plane from Washington, D. C.

Special military exercises, called Operation Big Blast, scheduled for the week, prevented some generals in Kansas and Missouri from attending the affair.

Guests from Jefferson City, Kansas City, St. Louis, St. Joseph, Topeka, and Washington, D. C., were not the only ones who braved bad weather to come from distant places to the campus for the dedication address.

Saturday morning the local National Guard received word that the Truman party from Independence would have an additional member. It was not until Sunday, however, that it became known that Miss Margaret Truman, of New York City, would accompany her father and mother here. She returned to New York by plane the next day.

Senator Clayton Allen, of Jefferson City, and County Representative I. E. Tulloch, of Jefferson City, were among the civilian guests introduced at the dinner.

College Regents attending were Judge and Mrs. M. E. Ford, Attorney and Mrs. Harold Hull, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. C. Dawson of Grant City.

The dedication program was broadcast over radio stations, movies were made of it, and it was carried by Kansas City television after the films were processed in New York.

They're Talking About . . .

The armory dedication . . . the dedication of the National Guard's new armory was quite a deal. More than 500 people attended, and the dedication address was given by Harry S. Truman . . . Bess and Margaret also accompanied the former president. A lot of big Army brass was also present, along with Congressman Hull . . . The College can certainly be proud of that corner of the campus. The new armory would add to any campus.

With patches of snow still showing around the campus, activities are a plenty in the Bearcat Den . . . Even though the tennis courts are not in use, the table tennis or ping pong tables in the Den really get a work-out . . . A number of guys and gals get pretty clever with those ping pong paddles, but Ernie Hutchings would be a likely contender for the ping pong champ of 'Ol State . . . Cards get a good workout in the Den also . . . Bridge seems to be the favorite of seniors, math majors, and those who have a lot of time, but Pitch is probably most popular, as it's fast and simple.

High school sub-regionals and regionals are taking place at this time of year . . . Many are following their old Alma Mater and hoping they'll make the state tourney . . . The regional held here always provides some high class school basketball; a number of high school players get their chance on a college court . . . Be on the lookout, Coach Gregory!

Saw where Cape Girardeau had another big name band scheduled for their spring dance. Many would like to get one here, but how many would work for it?

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Exchange Student Teaches on Campus

American students like to know foreign students. In the conversational French classes on this campus, people are becoming acquainted with Miss Alice Eugenie Glynos, better known as "Lilli," an exchange student from La Sorbonne, University of Paris. She is in this country on a Rotary International scholarship combined with a Full-bright scholarship. "Lilli" arrived in this country in September and will return to France where she hopes to teach English.

Born close to Paris, "Lilli" has lived there most of her life, although she studied two years in Athens, Greece. She is majoring in English and will return to La Sorbonne, University of Paris.

An accomplished linguist, she can speak several languages, including Greek, French, Spanish and English. Her teaching is like that of most American teachers.

Her two-hour classes meet regularly in the Library at 7 p. m. on Monday and Tuesday evenings

Alice Glynos

Those who are just beginning to learn French are taking the Monday night class, and those who have learned some French are taking the Tuesday night class.

Emphasis is placed on the practical use of French rather than on French grammar. Several students in her class have been to France as G. I.s or tourists. She also teaches French to the kindergarten and first grade of Horace Mann every day. The latter classes are about fifteen minutes long with French games and songs and with the regular study of nouns.

"Lilli" often compares life in America with life in France when she speaks at meetings of the Rotary Clubs in this area.

THE STROLLER

If the weather continues changing as it has been, the sign in front of the dorm will have to be changed to read "Girls' Infirmary." Last week, there were from eight to ten girls out of classes each day because of illness. Wonder whom this is harder on, the girls or Mrs. Luer, who is kept busy calling on them and worrying about them.

The Dance Club program is tonight. We should all make an effort to attend. The girls and Miss Doris Hysler put in many hours on this show for our entertainment.

Drifting shoulders, sniffs, and dark circles under the eyes—this seems to be THE LOOK on campus. The only explanation, we're all ready for spring, the sooner the better. Then, no doubt, the look will change to that coming out of the corner of the eye to see if the teacher whose class you are thinking of skipping is anywhere around. Even the Den has acquired a tired atmosphere. It still remains the most popular place on campus though. How many of us realize how lucky we are to have such a nice "hangout"?

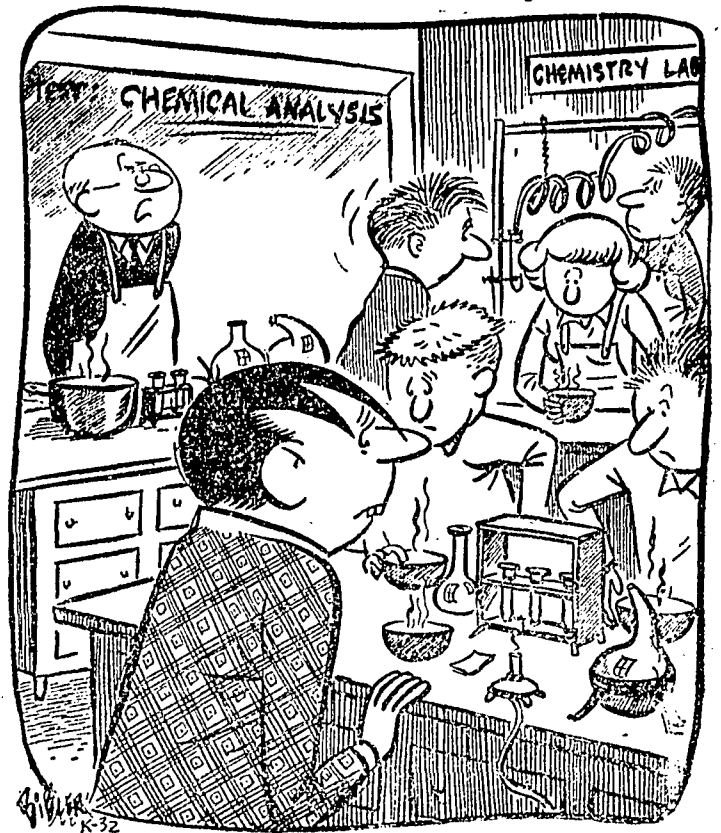

"This is the way we wash our hair, make a dress, play a game. This is the way we mold a bowl, standing in front of our speech class." It's the theme song of all students taking Fundamentals of Speech this semester.

Closing thought: Are two squares going steady an octagon?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"The only clue I'll give you is that it came from the student cafeteria."

It's a Gentleman's Duty

Age of chivalry! How was it lost?

Young ladies, if the term is used loosely, complain about the good manners the gentlemen of today do not have.

"Men don't even open doors for us. Where has their chivalry gone?" they question.

If these young ladies would think for a moment, they would realize where the chivalry has gone.

A gentleman stands in sub-zero weather holding the door open for a half mile of screaming girls. Does any one of these so called ladies have the graciousness to murmur a sincere thank you?

They do not. After all it's coming to them. It's a gentleman's duty to open doors, isn't it?

Maybe so, but would you blame this same gentleman for opening the door only for himself the next time?

From Other Campuses

Springfield—"Death of a Salesman" has been chosen as the spring-term play.

Tarkio—The Tarkio College A Cappella Choir is making ready for the annual spring tour which will be April 1st to April 10th. The group will go through Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, and Eastern Kansas.

Hays, Kansas—Leap Week activities climaxed here with a dance, February 18. This week is sponsored annually by UNESCO, and all proceeds are used to sponsor a foreign student on this campus, or else sponsor a student from Fort Hays State on a foreign campus.

Senate Appoints Assembly Committee

Recent activities of the Student Senate include the appointment of a committee for the selection of assemblies for the coming year and one for the revision of the Student Handbook.

The students on the assembly committee include Bob Wilson, Frank Bayless, J. D. Hammond, Art Buckingham, Marym Croy, Bonnie Henderson, Gus Clothier, Dirk Wilbur, Marca Dick, and Dixie Moore.

Mr. Ralph Fulson, Mr. Donald Sandford, Dr. Irene Mueller, Dr. Glen Hoffman, Miss Doris Hysler, Miss Estella Bowman, and Dr. Sterling Surrey will serve as faculty advisers to this assembly group.

Union Board Develops Programs For Individuals and Groups

bers will promote arts and crafts projects and exhibits.

Recreation committee: Members will arrange for instruction and tournaments in bridge, table tennis, billiards, chess, etc.

Off-campus concert committee: Members will select programs of interest in such places as Kansas City and Omaha and make ticket and transportation arrangements for students and faculty wishing to attend.

College Band Performs Programs at Ravenwood

The College Band played a concert program at Ravenwood High School at 2 p. m., Friday. The members of the band left Maryville at 12:45 and were gone the remainder of the afternoon. The band gave the same program as it performed for the College at a recent assembly.

Student's Father Dies

Virgil V. Scadden, 47, of Stanberry, died Tuesday, February 15, at the St. Francis Hospital. He suffered a heart attack at his home Tuesday morning and was taken to the hospital.

A daughter, Mona Kay, is a freshman at this college.

A. A. U. W.

Tomorrow night the American Association of University Women will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the lounge of the Union Building.

"We Report our Progress in Working Together on Common Problems" will be the topic of the program. Discussion will also be held on "An Integrated Plan of Action," by Mrs. Dale Howland, chairman, and members of the legislation committee.

Mrs. Elizabeth Luer and Mrs. Weber McMillen will be co-chairmen for this meeting. Hostesses are as follows: Mrs. Thomas Birkenholz, Mrs. J. Dorr Ewing, Mrs. Lloyd Kneals, Mrs. Dennis McGinnis, Miss Ruth Miller, Mrs. James Rhoades, Miss Dora B. Smith, Mrs. Vincent Smith, and Mrs. Lon Wilson.

Alpha Psi Omega

Initiation for new members of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics honorary fraternity, was held February 9. The ceremony was given in the little theater at the College Administration building.

New members are Mrs. Ruby Wispe (honorary), Rolande Thompson, Kaye Ferguson, Carol Kaye Trotter, Elbert Blair, Jim Warner, Charles Hagee, Miles Stucker, and Walt Hopkins.

Refreshments were served at the home of Mrs. Wispe following the initiation.

Independent Club

150-170-200—What's trumps? This was the sound coming from the Union Lounge, February 22. Yes, the IC's enjoyed a card party and record dance. Plans were made for a skating party the next week.

Those who have $50 too much and want to spend it are invited to get in touch with Fred Whitford, and he will give you all the particulars on the National Independent Convention being held at Colorado A and M in April.

Tri Sig Pledge of Year Meets President Truman

Teke Tips

Well, here it is one week nearer to spring and vacation again. Old Man Winter is gradually fading away. Basketball season is over but spring track men are out. Ric Tilton, loosening up and getting into shape, is a sure sign of this.

TKE spring semester smoker at the Elk's Club, on February 22, was a big success. Surprise guest speaker of the evening was James Logan, national president of TKE. It was swell to have so many prospective Tommies attending.

Snow postponed Heart Fund Drive until last Monday. Thanks for all of the contributions donated to a good cause. EYEBALLER and EYECATCHER contest is over—anyone surprised with the results?

"Mom" Sherman is back from the Far North Country. Quietness reigns in Quad 4.

Hear ye, hear ye—keep your eye open to Quad 4. A new illuminated sign is going up soon.

TKE quote of the week — "The skull is too small." Time to close now. A hot pitch game is going on in room 413.

Pi Omega Pi

Beta chapter of Pi Omega Pi held a regularly scheduled meeting on Monday, February 21.

Avis Murrell, who has returned to school this semester, resumed her duties as president. Jerry Sprong, president in the absence of Avis, has stepped back into his role of vice-president.

A discussion was held on various projects which are being completed this year. Plans were made for a field trip in the near future.

Sigma Sigmas

Ten girls became active members of Alpha Epsilon chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority Saturday, February 19. The girls were Kay Barnes, Mound City; Jo Beeson, Menandoah, Ia.; Connie Cutler, St. Joseph; Sandra Hayzlett, Graham;

This isn't an indication that Deltas have consented to join the spinster's club, but there comes a time. Yes, the time is here. We have run out of pins, and decency must be maintained. Mending isn't such a task when you have company.

So... Rosalie Hamilton, Mary Griffin, and Marcia Woodcock have taken matters in hand and have planned this "Mend It Party."

Helen Gillis and Shirley Ellyson have been appointed to make the '54-'55 Delta Scrapbook.

"Pleasures we can share" was the objective set up by the members of the Delta Sigma Epsilon at the beginning of the year.

In keeping with that objective, Kathy Taylor and Verla Mosman are making a study of overseas projects and are planning a program to be given to the residents of a local rest home.

Phi Sig Review

The Phi Sig smoker was held last Wednesday at the chapter room. About fifty prospective pledges attended and seemed to enjoy an evening of fun. Entertainment was furnished by George Green, Burl Walter, Bill Franklin, and a Tri Sig trio. Thanks to all of these fine people who helped make it a success.

Mr. Francis Bremmer, the national executive officer of Phi Sigma Epsilon; Dean W. A. Brandenburg; Mr. William T. Garrett; Dr. J. G. Strong; and Dr. Glenn Hoffman were guests.

Last night was the first meeting for the pledges. A dance was held after the meeting with the Tri Sig sorority as our guests. These informal get-togethers are enjoyed by everyone, and we hope they can continue throughout the school year.

Things coming up for Phi Sigma Epsilon include the Orchid Ball, Frolics, and many more informal dances.

Ag Club

Ag Club Square Dance will be held Saturday, March 5, from 8 p. m. until 11:30 p. m., in room 114 of the Administration building.

This dance is for Ag Club members and their dates. Music will be furnished by records. Mr. F. B. Houghton and Mr. R. T. Wright are Ag Club sponsors.

Members of the committees for the dance are as follows: Entertainment and decorations, Dick Smith, Marlan Tiemann, Byron Cooper, and Raymond Butt; refreshments, Monty Adams, Zane Dodge, and Dick Phillips.

Former Student Dies

Raymond M. Barry, Jr., 49, died Sunday at the St. Francis hospital where he had been a patient five days.

He was a graduate of Maryville high school and attended Maryville State College. He was employed as a rural mail carrier in the post office.

He is survived by Mrs. Barry, who is employed in the Business Office, and his parents of Maryville.

Jean Jensen, Red Oak, Ia.; Carolyn Massie, Hopkins; Gail Medsker, Graham; Donna Stark, Maryville; Marylan Wahlers, Gallatin; and Virginia Wharton, Gentry.

Initiation week-end climaxed Sunday when the sorority attended church in a body and held a dinner in the College Union, at which time, Donna Stark was honored as "outstanding pledge."

Alpha Phi Omega

The regular meeting of Alpha Phi Omega was held February 24. Richard Quinn was accepted into the fellowship by the presentation of the membership rites and ceremony.

Four men were accepted into pledgeship by the members and were duly sworn to the four-fold plan of collegiate service. Those accepting the pledge oath were Kenneth Olney, Dean L. Howard, Richard A. Dooley, and Carl H. Hoffman.

Social Committee Plans Friday Night Movies

The social committee of the Student Senate is sponsoring a group of shows with dances afterward to be held in the Bearcat Den on Friday evenings. The first one of these shows, "The Black Rose," was held last Friday evening at 7 p. m.

In planning these shows the committee is endeavoring to provide entertainment for the students at a moderate price. The attraction for this Friday night is "Ruby Gentry."

Delta Sigmas

Track Takes Up as Basketball Season Ends

Bearcats Lose To Warrensburg

Coach Bob Gregory's Bearcats suffered a 71-58 loss at the hands of the Warrensburg Mules in the final game of the season here February 26.

Ono Monachino, playing his last game for the Bearcats, took Maryville scoring honors with 14 points.

This loss pushed the Bearcats into fifth place in the MIAA Conference.

Nancy Jamison Is "M" Club Queen

Under streamers of traditional green and white, couples danced to the music of Dee Peterson's orchestra at the annual "M" Club dance, February 26.

During intermission, M Club President, Duane Freeman crowned Miss Nancy Jamison, freshman, from Tarkio, 1954-55 "M" Club Queen.

In keeping with the Bearcat colors, the coronation ceremony was performed under a large white parachute centered with the "M" emblem in green.

Escorted by Ono Monachino, Queen Nancy reigned from a throne covered with the green "M" Club blanket.

Her crown, made of white flowers, also carried the green emblem. Attendants were the other queen candidates, Misses Nancy Rainey and Wanda Dugger.

All candidates were presented compacts as gifts from the club and Miss Jamison was also given a billfold.

Intramurals Select Basketball All Stars

"All-Stars of Basketball" as selected by the Intramural Commission are Dave Culver, Ross Scott, Don Mattson, Garold Walker, Darrell Walker, Ron Wray, Ron Bradley, Louis Linville, Jim Rosier, Paul Zackery, Ron O'Dell, and Lester Wooten.

Chosen from the four leading intramural basketball teams, the All Stars encountered the Maryville "B" Team in the curtain raiser of the last basketball game of the '54-'55 season.

Co-Rec Resumes Volleyball Play

Co-recreational activities, discontinued for the last two weeks to accommodate the Regional and Sub-regional high school basketball tournaments, will be resumed next Wednesday night.

Volleyball will be the order of the evening with the cooperative sorority-fraternity teams engaging in a tournament.

Bearcat Star Holds Two MIAA Track Records

"Mickey" Anderson, senior, Atlantic, Iowa, returns from Marine Service to add strength to the Bearcat Track Team.

Rain, sleet, or snow will not keep Mick Anderson from training for the Omaha U. indoors meet.

Mick holds two MIAA State Track records, the two mile outdoor at 9:45.7 and the indoor mile at 4:28.6. Although he does not hold the Conference outdoor mile record, he has the outstanding time of 4:28.5.

When asked for a record of his track work, Mick told the reporter: CALL 555 FOR APPOINTMENT

... Oh, it's nothing. Maybe I'll not be able to live up to expectations.

Coach Ryland Milner has other ideas, however, and says, "he does have an outstanding record; we're proud of him, and are sure we can count on Mick to help the '54-'55 Bearcat team."

Intramurals Begin Ping Pong, Badminton Volleyball Season

With the basketball season over, the intramural program is getting set to start out full time on ping pong, badminton, and volleyball.

Both singles and doubles will be played in ping pong and badminton. Two teams from each organization will go after honors in volleyball.

Thus far in point participation, the Sig Taus are out in front with a good lead.

Support your organization in these coming intramural activities. An intramural trophy will be awarded to the winner in all-round participation at the end of the semester.

Random Shots . . .

Jack Spence

This is risky business but here are this reporter's choices for the MIAA all-conference basketball team.

CENTER—Ono Monachino—Maryville, whose rebounding, shooting, and determination made him far and away the finest pivot man in the conference.

FORWARDS—Jack Beck, Kirksville, good scorer, smooth floor man, and a better than average rebounder; Daryl Flint, Maryville; even though his scoring dropped off somewhat this year, his tremendous work on the boards and unselfish attitude made him a sure bet to repeat his all-conference honors.

GUARDS—Nickolson, Rolla, a sensational long shot artist, great all around basketball player, who wasn't stopped by anyone; Ray Ripplemeyer, Cape, a steady, alert player who can drive, hit from the outside, pass and feed, and is an all-around floor general.

Following closely behind these performers are Mach, Kirksville; Anderson, Springfield—guards; Peterson, Springfield; Russell, Warrensburg—forwards; and Sims of Cape as center.

I might be slightly biased on the two big Maryville players, but if there are two players in the conference who are better, I have yet to see them.

Hats off to the departing senior basketballers—Ono Monachino, John Garner, Bill Baldwin, and Jim Swaney. They will be hard to replace, and here are thanks for the many thrills they have given us in the past four years.
